

M	_____	A mother's love! If there be one thing pure, Where all beside is sullied, That can endure, When all else passes away; If there be aught Surpassing human deed or word, or thought, It is a mother's love. -- Marchioness De Spadara
O	_____
T	_____
H	_____
E	_____
R	_____

You can attach the above poem straight into your lapbook, or you can fold it in half and add the cover to it I provided on the left.

Write a poem about your mother using the first letter in the word 'mother.'

Here is an example:

M O T H E R.
ACROSTIC.

M y rhyming wreath, let me entwine
O 'er thy name, sweet mother mine,
T hou to me art dearest still,
H aving thee, I fear no ill,
E ver warm, thy constant love
R efects affection's source above.